

The elementary school uses discipline points to help identify both patterns and degrees of misbehaviors and to provide a range for an objective and appropriate corrective response. Teachers use the ranges below to issue discipline points. A student’s parent will be notified by the teacher or principal anytime a discipline point is issued.

Personnel Involved

Offenses and Discipline Points

Minor (teacher issues points)

- Disruptive behavior 2-15 pts
- Disobedience 2-10 pts

Major (administrator issues points)

- Cheating 10-25 pts
- Fighting 10-25 pts
- Inappropriate Speech 10-25 pts
- Lying 10-25 pts
- Stealing 10-50 pts
- Vandalism 10-25 pts

Action Thresholds (Discipline points accumulate through the school year.)

